

I. 問題 1～10 について、( )に入る最も適当なものを①～④のうちから一つずつ選びなさい。

1. The president suggested that we ( ) the meeting until next week.

- ① postpone    ② postponed    ③ will postpone    ④ have postponed

2. I'd rather you ( ) me the truth right now.

- ① tell    ② told    ③ will tell    ④ have told

3. This is the first time I ( ) such a beautiful sunset.

- ① see    ② saw    ③ have seen    ④ had seen

4. I asked three people for directions, but ( ) of them knew the way.

- ① all    ② none    ③ either    ④ neither

5. He didn't come to the meeting, ( ) surprised everyone.

- ① which    ② that    ③ what    ④ who

6. It's high time you ( ) your homework.

- ① finish    ② finished    ③ will finish    ④ have finished

7. The movie was so boring that I almost fell asleep, ( ) my friend enjoyed it.

- ① although    ② because    ③ so    ④ if

8. The teacher got us ( ) the essay again.

- ① rewrite    ② rewrote    ③ to rewrite    ④ to rewriting

9. You look pale. You ( ) to the doctors' now.

- ① have been    ② should have gone    ③ must have gone    ④ ought to go

10. The scientists' main ( ) is to find a cure for the pandemic.

- ① mission    ② impression    ③ definition    ④ foundation

II. 問題 11～15 について、下線部と同じ意味になるものを①～④のうちから一つずつ選びなさい。

11. Please fill out this form before the interview.

- ① erase      ② complete      ③ ignore      ④ submit

12. The company decided to cut down on unnecessary expenses.

- ① maintain      ② replace      ③ reduce      ④ increase

13. She takes after her mother in the way she speaks.

- ① depends on      ② resembles      ③ differs from      ④ argues with

14. He was able to get over his fear of speaking in public.

- ① avoid      ② overcome      ③ remember      ④ discover

15. We need to figure out a way to solve this problem.

- ① hide      ② reject      ③ find      ④ confuse

III. 問題 16～20 について、①～⑤の単語を並びかえて文を完成させ、3 番目に入るものを選びなさい。ただし文頭に来る語も小文字で示されている。

16. 傘を持たずに外出するや否や、雨が激しく降り始めました。

Scarcely _____ my umbrella when it began to rain heavily.

- ① gone      ② I      ③ outside      ④ without      ⑤ had

17. もし核戦争が起これば人類はどうなるでしょう。

_____ if a nuclear war should break out?

- ① of      ② what      ③ mankind      ④ become      ⑤ would

18. 私は自分の欠点を自覚しているので他人を責めることなど、とても出来ません。

As _____, I can hardly blame others.

- ① my      ② know      ③ faults      ④ I      ⑤ own

19. 金銭欲は諸々の悪の根源であると言われています。

It is said that greed for money is _____.

- ① all      ② the      ③ evil      ④ of      ⑤ root

20. 部長はその社員に無理やりプレゼンテーションをさせました。

The manager made the employee give _____.

- ① presentation      ② will      ③ a      ④ against      ⑤ her

IV. 問題 21～30 について、以下の文章を読み、内容と合っている場合は①、そうでない場合は②を選びなさい。

It's always exciting to visit a foreign country. Just choose a place, then book a package tour. One week in Thailand! Two weeks in France! It's so easy.

But what if you're greedy? Is it possible to visit one country but experience two cultures? Of course! How? By joining a tour to one country organized for people from another country. That gives you two cultures in one trip. Two for one!

Let me give an example. My wife and I had always wanted to visit Russia. We decided to join a package tour. My mother and her British friend wanted to come along. No problem!

We were working in the Middle East at that time teaching English to Arab students. In those days, there was no Internet, so we booked our tour through a local travel agency — an Arab tour of Russia!

It was exciting to arrive in Moscow! My mother had flown from California. Her friend had flown from London. My wife and I had flown from Jordan.

There were 20 people in our group: 16 Arabs, my Japanese wife, my Canadian mother, her British friend and me. The Arabs were really nice people and we soon became good friends. There were some businessmen, a few students, a family with two cute kids and a couple on their honeymoon. It was the man's second marriage. In Islam, men are allowed four wives. His first wife was back home with the kids!

Our two-week tour was a lot of fun. We visited Moscow, Leningrad and Sochi — site of the 2014 Winter Olympics. We did face some challenges, though.

One problem was language. Our Russian tour guides gave all their explanations in Arabic! Each time, we had to ask our Arab friends, "What did she say?" Luckily, they kindly translated into English for us.

The other problem was assumptions. The Russian staff would look at us — two Canadians, a Japanese and a Brit — and assume that we'd got separated from our national groups.

We went into restaurants and the waiters would panic. "You're in the wrong room. This is for Arabs!" We tried to board our tour bus and security guards turned us away. "You must be lost. This is the Arab bus. The Canadian tour bus is across the street. The Japanese bus is over there."

Despite all the problems, it was a great trip! We loved Russia — the museums, the ballet, the circus, the people. And we learned a lot about Arab culture. We never ate pork, avoided alcohol and had time scheduled for Islamic prayers. It was a privilege to see Russia through Arab eyes.

Why not experience two cultures for the price of one? A German tour of Brazil. A Korean tour of Mexico. A Chinese tour of Australia. The possibilities are endless!

(The Japan Times ST, "Two for one!" By Kip A. Cates. Dec. 6. 2013 より)

21. An exciting visit to a foreign country is possible only through package tours.
22. The writer found a clever way to enjoy two cultures just by visiting one country.
23. The writer reserved an Arab tour of Russia from the Middle East through a web site.
24. The writer was accompanied by his wife, his mother and a friend of hers on this tour.
25. Since the Russian tour guides used Arabic at all times, the writer's group had to seek language assistance from their Arab friends.
26. The Russian staff made us board different buses assuming we had joined the wrong tour.

27. The writer's group was turned away by waiters at restaurants as they were booked solely for the Arabs.
28. Regardless of the various problems the writer's group had to cope with during the tour, the trip to Russia was a huge success.
29. The writer's group decided to follow the Islamic tradition by avoiding both pork and alcohol.
30. There is an endless possibility of two cultures blending into one all over the world.

V. 次の Question について、英文 60 語(words)程度で書きなさい。
(別途解答用紙を使用してください。)

Question: If you were to study a foreign language besides English, which language would you choose and why?

2026 年度 一般選抜Ⅱ期 外国語「英語コミュニケーションⅠ・Ⅱ」

問題番号	解答番号	正解
I	1	1
	2	2
	3	3
	4	2
	5	1
	6	2
	7	1
	8	3
	9	4
	10	1
II	11	2
	12	3
	13	2
	14	2
	15	3
III	16	1
	17	4
	18	1
	19	4
	20	4
IV	21	2
	22	1
	23	2
	24	1
	25	1
	26	2
	27	2
	28	1
	29	1
	30	2
V	-	正解省略